

It is irresponsible of the FCC to relax or eliminate media ownership rules. We rely on the FCC to regulate, not get in bed with, the media moguls who will control and shape what we see and hear. We cannot get diversity of thought back once we cede control to just a few. Please think "big-picture and long-term".